Author's Note

Wilderness has magic. Unlike the tab apps, TV, and cell phone games, where you can only hear and see, forests give you a real life magical experience where you can feel, smell, see, hear, taste and have a hell of a good time! You can actually jump in the jungle streams, smell the flowers, play in the mud, climb trees, catch crabs, eat wild fruits, spot snakes, yelp on bee stings, hit monkeys with your catapult (Nah...don't do that. The fella will come chasing you!), hold twinkling fireflies, and drink from the waterfalls. How many times do you get a chance to do all this in the city? Hardly ever! Here we can't even see the stars clearly at night.

The eight stories in this book are on the adventures and thrills of the wilderness and wild animals. The stories are woven around the dung beetle, scorpion, hyena, Hanuman langur, ratel, pangolin, horned owl, wild goat, and cheetah.

So read on and join the adventures with Ayan, Hanu, Sheru, Madhuchanda, Bon-Bon and others.
